This farmhouse is in a beautiful and very strategic point, very close to Abbadia San Salvatore and Radicofani, it is situated in the South of Tuscany, between Lazio and Umbria. The estate consist of five buildings to be restored, one of them has already an approved project for restoration and is about 250 sq m. The land is about 92 ha, part for agriculture and part for pasture. There are also three little lakes for the animals watering. It has the typical peculiarities of the Senese area: it is at about 400 m above sea level and it is mostly exposed to the South.
